

To The Good Neighbors Of Red Cross

Tomorrow is the last day of October and also the last day of the 1975 Red Cross Fund Drive!

We are encouraged because there has been a net increase of 11% in the size of the gifts received to date from former contributors, and because 29% of the gifts received so far are from new contributors. But,

We are deeply concerned because we have not heard from over half of our regular Red Cross contributors, and many of those who have not yet responded are from our Business Community upon whom Red Cross heavily depends.

The gifts received so far total but half our minimum needs, and but a third of our goal! However,

We are sure the Good Neighbors of Crawford County want all the Red Cross benefits; that they want this Chapter to be able to provide Disaster Relief when less than five families are involved; and we have faith that you will not fail to adequately support Red Cross financially! So,

If you have not yet sent in your contribution, please, make out your check now, and put it in the mail today! To:

Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross, Post Office Box 649, Grayling, Mich. 49738. Thank you from the American Red Cross Volunteers.

AuSable River Assn. Promotes "Operation Identification"

(By Abner C. Sager)

Directors of the AuSable River System Property Owners Association adopted a method of promoting and assisting the members in "Operation Identification" at the meeting recently held at the home of Nelson Miles on the Main Stream.

President, Ben McKouen, announced that the Association will have several engravers which will be available for the use of members to mark a driver license or a Social Security number on various items in the home such as radio, TV, tools etc. Decals will be available to place on doors and windows after engraving. A letter of instruction will be sent to all members.

"Operation Identification" has been promoted by insurance companies for several years and has recently been promoted and available through the Michigan State Police and some law enforcement agencies. It is used to recognize and recover items which may be stolen and is believed to be a deterrent for break-ins.

Representatives of seven River Associations recently met to adopt the name - Michigan Congress of River Associations - was the report given to the Directors by Vice-President William Grimes. The primary purpose of the new organization is to unite in concerted effort to promote proper use of the rivers of Michigan.

Several incidents of erosion on the branches of the AuSable have been reported. Efforts are being made to get action to correct some bad conditions.

The Directors will meet next at the Grayling Holiday Inn at 9:00 a.m., Saturday, December 13.

Members may mail comments for discussion to the Association, P.O. Box 15, Grayling, Michigan 49738.

Others who maintain property in the area and are interested in the welfare of Crawford and Roscommon Counties may secure information by mailing a note to the above address.

Second of Series

"Bright Belgium" to be Topic Of True - Life Adventure

On Tuesday evening, November 4, the Crawford AuSable Community School Program will present the second program of their Travel and Adventure Series. Show time is 8:00 p.m. at Grayling High School's Joseph Stripe Auditorium. Appearing there that evening in person will be scientist, lecturer and photographer John Strong, narrating his full color documentary "Bright Belgium". John Strong is well known throughout the United States as a travel-lecturer and outstanding among the qualities that enhance his travel films are his artistic photography and his sense of humor. Always a sympathetic listener among the people he visits, he shows their unusual and different daily lives in a way which audiences everywhere find amusing and fascinating.

In his true-life, full color adventure of the people of Belgium, John Strong takes the time to reveal the bright secrets of that tiny kingdom with its towering castles, pageantry and pomp, and scenic beauty at every turn. Relax and enjoy his breath-taking display of the Valley of the Meuse, the Ardennes and Brugge, Belgium's lace capital. In Flander's Fields from Brussels to Oostende you will see Belgians growing flax, begonias and hops. At Ronquieres you will see four barges at a time lifted up the side of a mountain in a huge elevator. Canals crisscross Belgium and all canal traffic comes to focus at Antwerp, bustling diamond and industrial center. In Gent, where oil painting was invented, you will hear stories of the brave deeds of crusading knights and feudal counts.

Doors to the Joseph Stripe Auditorium will open at 7:15 and tickets will be available at that time. Tickets are also available in the Grayling area at the Grayling Pharmacy. Price of admissions are six adult admissions for just $8.00. The children's and senior citizen's tickets are $5.00 and the six admissions can be used in any manner one would choose to use them. School—City Council Election Nov. 4th

On Tuesday, November 4th, voters in the Crawford - AuSable School District will cast their ballot on a bond issue to build a new addition at the Frederic Elementary School, and on the same day, electors in the City of Grayling will vote for three of four candidates seeking seats on the city council.

The proposed bond issue for the Frederic school is for $545,000, and will require approximately 3/4 of a mill per year to retire the debt at an average cost of $5.25 per taxpayer per year, according to Fraser Dean, Superintendent of Schools.

Dean stated, that it would take between 25 and 30 years to pay off the bond, depending on interest rates.

The new addition would replace the old Frederic School that was built in 1925, and will be joined to the four newer classroom building that was constructed in 1957, Dean said. Together with the four present classrooms, and the addition, the school would have a maximum capacity of 300 students, he added.

The bond proposition will appear on the ballot as follows:

"Shall Crawford AuSable School District, Crawford, Otsego and Kalkaska Counties, Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Five Hundred Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($545,000.00) and issue its general obligation unlimited tax bonds therefor, for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping an addition to and remodeling the Frederic Elementary School; and developing and improving the site?"

Four persons filed petitions for three vacancies on the city council for four year terms to assure somewhat of a contest.

Seeking reelection are incumbents, Derek E. McEvers and Robert B. Golnick, with Georgia M.

Knight and Wayne A. Hindmarsh entering the elective race for the first time.

Candidates will be running at-large, and not by precinct, and will take office on November 10th. The three elected will join present councilmen, David Hanson and Gordon Thompson, at which time the mayor and mayor pro-tem will be decided among the five.

Voters in the city will have to cast their ballot at two different sites on Tuesday. The city council election will be held at the city hall, with the school bond issue election being held at the middle school gym.

Voting places for the School District election are: the Lovells Town Hall, the Frederic Elementary Gym, and the Grayling Middle School Gym.

Polls for both elections will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Crawford County Community Service Having Fund Drive

The Crawford County Community Service is getting into full swing for the 1975 Christmas program. The holidays will be here soon and we are going to need more help with our project. So far the RSVP is making the nighties and pajamas for the children's gifts. You bought the material for their labor of love. This will be our eighth year in operation and we do feel this program has been successful.

It has been two years since we asked you for funds, but now we find our resources are low.

Any donation you could give to us would be appreciated. If you send money please send your check or money order to Crawford County Community Service, c/o Grayling State Bank, P.O. Box 489, Grayling, Michigan 49738.

If you have new or used toys in excellent condition that you might contribute you may leave them at Bill's Laundry during business hours beginning November 1st to November 15th.

Dolls, games, stuffed toys etc, must be clean and not broken. Ask yourself "Would I want my child to get this item for Christmas?" If the answer is "NO!", please don't bring it.

We have sent letters to many, but I am sure there are many more who would like to be a part of making Christmas a happy time for all families in Crawford County. Your time is valuable to us also, therefore if that is all you are able to give call 348-8466 to register for service.

Thank you. And Merry Christmas.

Sale of Polyhedron Temporarily Stopped

The Bankruptcy sale of the Bear Mountain polyhedron building was temporarily stopped last Friday in federal court in Bay City by Bruce B. Benson, a Grayling attorney.

Benson, major stockholder in Bear Mountain Resort Co., won court consent for a hearing on a claim his firm owns the bar and swimming pool of the building.

Attorneys for the receiver argued against the "11th hour obstruction to the sale of the property", but U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Harold H. Bobier ruled against immediate sale while title to the property is at issue.

Although the resort company had relinquished the property to a receiver in 1973, a federal court suit claiming it still owns improvements it made after leasing the facility is pending, Benson pointed out.

Benson pointed to a swimming pool and cocktail lounge and "personal property" added by the firm and located on the premises.

Judge Bobier ruled Benson must post $65,000 bond before October 31st, or Friday's adjourned sale hearing would resume November 5th, at 1:30 p.m. in Flint.

An amended pleading (more information) must be filed within 10 days if bond is posted and Bobier said a trial date would then be set in about six weeks.

A bid of $65,000 for the polyhedron by Otsego Ski Club Inc., operators of Hidden Valley was set aside until Benson's claim was heard.

Hidden Valley had made a $7,500 deposit on the building, which prior to being moved to Grayling was the Minnesota pavilion at the New York World's Fair in 1964.

Other bidders were also on hand at the sale and could have outbid Hidden Valley, if their bids were 10 percent higher.

Bids were to have also been accepted on the sale of the Bear Mountain liquor license by the Trustee in Bankruptcy, Winn Hedglin, at the close of the hearing.

The warming house, ski equipment, toboggan building, garage and other assets of Grayling Community Recreation Area, Inc., will be sold at another time, according to Hedglin.

Chamber Preparing For Snowtime

With the first snowfall just around the corner the Grayling Area Festivals Committee has begun planning for the 51st Grayling Winter Sports Festival. At a meeting October 23rd the Festivals Committee set a date of February 6-8, 1976 for the Grayling Winter Sport Festival.

Many of the activities will be held at the Winter Sports Park (Bear Mountain), with others centered around the city and its immediate vicinity. One of the big activities being encouraged is snow and ice sculptures. Formerly a big event in the community, it is hoped the sculptures will have a revival. Area Churches, civic groups, High School Classes, and Hotel owners are being invited to participate.

Among the many other activities being planned are a cross country ski race, a Down Hill Canoe Race, Down Hill Ski Race, a Klondike Canoe Race, and a guided cross country ski experience for the blind.

The next scheduled meeting of the Grayling Area Festival Committee is November 19th at 7:30 p.m. Grayling City Building. All interested citizens are welcome to attend.

Set Hours For Trick - Treaters

The Grayling City Council has designated the hours of 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Friday, October 31, as the official hours for "trick or treating" in the City of Grayling.

They also suggest that persons who wish to have the trick or treaters come to their homes turn on their porch lights during these hours and ask that parents see that their youngsters comply with the designated time.

For safety's sake, children should be dressed in light colors and should not wear masks that obstruct their vision.

Drivers are urged to be extra cautious during this time.

The Worthy Matron was escorted to the East by her two sons, Mike and Pat Kucharek, and Sister June Feldhauser sang "I Believe" to her. Her mother, Mrs. Mamie Straehly, instructed the Chapter to salute her with Grand Honors. The Worthy Patron, Clive Marshall, was escorted to the East by his wife, Velda, and Arnie Stancil sang "No Man is an Island" for him. After the installation of the Chaplain, Mildred Hoy, "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Arnie Stancil.

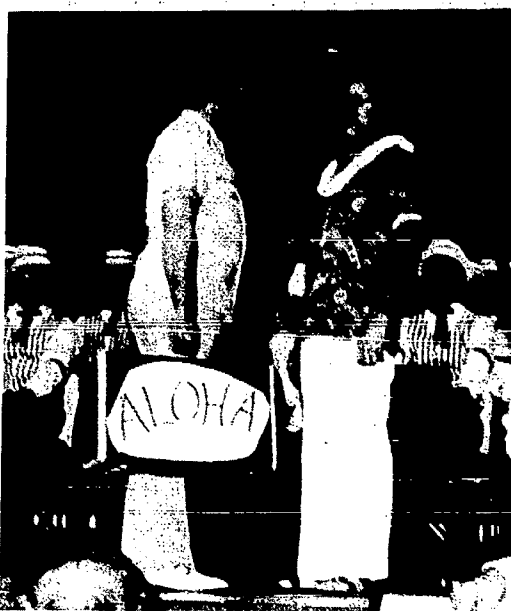

After all the officers were installed, the Worthy Matron's husband, John, and her daughter, Janet, presented her with her gavel. Her motto for the year is "The Golden Rule" and she has dedicated her year to her mother, Mamie Straehly.

The outgoing Worthy Matron, Betty Madsen, was presented with her Jewell from the Chapter by her mother, June Feldhauser. Her daughters presented her with gifts as well as the Past Matron's Club and other members. Robert Houghton, outgoing Worthy Patron, was presented his gift from the Chapter by Worthy Patron, Clive Marshall.

A lovely lunch was served in the dining room. The tables were decorated with green and white candle centerpieces and white nut cups in green triangles. A "golden rule" was at each place setting. A beautiful cake with congratulations to Sister Madeline and Brother Clive was at the head table, also a lovely doll cake, dressed in green frosting. Sister Madeline is honoring the Star Point of Martha this year. The lunch was chaired by Elizabeth Atkinson and Sally Kumpula was in charge of the serving.

It looks like a wonderful year ahead and it is hoped that many members attend the meetings. A School of Instruction is being given by the Worthy Grand Matron, Beatrice Dole, on November 4 at 7:00 at the Temple. A potluck dinner is being held at 5:30 before the school. Members, come and bring a dish to pass. It is hoped that many will be in attendance to meet the Worthy Grand Matron.

Grayling Rotary Club Minstrel Show A Success!!

Pictured above are two scenes from the highly acclaimed Minstrel Show presented by the Grayling Rotarians October 9th and 10th at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium. The Grayling Rotary Board of Directors, at their monthly meeting, October 16th, voted unanimously to present the show again next year and appointed Joe Wakey and Mike Flemming Co-Producers of this year's show, to organize next year's program.

A special "Thank You" was extended to all of those who bought tickets, all of the commercial advertisers who made generous contributions to the program, Golden Rule Printing, The Sweet Adelines, the Gaylords, "Van" the Lumberman, Jan Olson and those gentlemen from the community, who though they were not Rotarians, contributed hours of their own time to the Chorus, preparing for and appearing in the show.

Because of their tremendous appeal, there is little doubt but that the New Reformation Band will be placed under contract for next year's show and the talent search is on for new walk-on and comedy routines in addition to specialty numbers.

Again, the entire Rotary Club of Grayling wishes to thank all of those in the community who contributed to and supported this year's show and promises to do things even bigger and better next fall.

A Weekend Of Theatre

Rehearsals are underway for the Main Street Players, Inc. 2nd annual fall production, "Six Rms Riv Vu," a romantic comedy by Bob Randall. Many will remember the TV Series of the same name, which starred Carol Burnett and Alan Alda.

The cast for this hilarious play consists of: John Bosserman, 20, as Paul Friedman; Maggie DeSantis, 25, as Anne Miller; Mike Dosch, 21, as Richard Miller; Andrea Schaal, 23, as Janet Friedman; June Karjalainen, 24, as the Woman in 4A; Humphrey Paul, 24, as Eddie; June Ameluxen, 40, as the Pregnant Woman; and Rod Schaal, 24, as Larry. Geographically, the cast is drawn half - and - half from Grayling and Roscommon.

"Six Rms Riv Vu" will be performed on Saturday and Sunday evenings, November 22 and 23, at 8:30 p.m., at the Kirtland Auditorium. Tickets are $1.50 advance, $2.00 at the door. Advance tickets will be on sale in two weeks at Mac's Rexall Drugs in Grayling.

Performing on a Sunday night is an unusual thing, but the Main Street Players hope it will encourage many who otherwise couldn't make it on Friday and Saturday. As "Six Rms Riv Vu" is a relatively short play, it will be over by 10:00 p.m., despite the rather late 8:30 p.m. curtain time.

While you can finish your weekend at Kirtland, the Main Street Players also encourage you to begin your weekend by attending the Grayling High School production of "The Torch Bearers", which will be performed the same weekend, on Friday and Saturday, November 21 and 22, at 8:00 p.m., at the Grayling High School Auditorium.

Don't miss a "Weekend of Theatre." Call Maggie DeSantis at 348-2271 for information.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN — THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1975

From Our Corner...

We blew the coo on the closing of the banking facilities last Monday only because we figured any red letter date our esteemed statesmen had decided on would be a holiday.

I for one have always used we from our corner, only because we figured our readers would think there were more than I in our opinion.

With that settled — I for one believe the most ridiculous thing our elective officials ever passed was the Monday holiday bill, that put Veterans Day in October.

We, (sorry, I) was just a pup following World War I, at that time the name was Armistice Day — and I will never forget going from school to the Gaylord Opera House for the observance of the 11th minute of the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month to honor those who served in the Armed Forces.

For those who read our corner, and are of age to vote — We pass on our little bit of sage advice — Vote Tuesday, November 4th — on the Frederic School bond and for the Council vacancies — only you can determine the outcome.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

WHY THE GREAT TRIBULATION?

The great tribulation is God's promised future earthly punishment upon a world of men and nations who have rejected both God and His revealed laws.

The consistency of God demands it. God has always punished sin in both heaven and earth. He punished the fallen angels, Adam and Eve in the garden, the entire world by a universal flood, Sodom and Gomorrah with fire and brimstone, the nation of Israel repeatedly for sin and finally the substitutionary death of Jesus Christ upon the cross for our sin.

The promises of God demand it. "Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: They shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried." Jeremiah 25:32,33.

"For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity..." Isaiah 26:21. "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: ...The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished." II Peter 2:4-7,9.

God says that the destruction brought upon ungodly men in the past is recorded for us in the Bible as examples to warn ungodly men that they will surely be punished someday by God. Even so, the deliverance of Noah through the tribulation of the world flood is a picture of the preservation of the nation of Israel during the coming tribulation period. The rescue of Lot prior to the destruction of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah is a picture of the rapture of the church prior to the coming great tribulation.

The Holiness and Righteousness of God demands it. The fact that God is perfect in holiness and righteousness and justice assures us that He must punish sin. "Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? We shall not die. O Lord, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devour the man that is more righteous than he?" Habakkuk 1:12,13.

Men and nations are bringing the great tribulation upon themselves by their rejection of God's love in Christ Jesus, and their insistence upon the gross practice of sin. "But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God Who will render to every man according to his deeds." Romans 2:5,6.

Next week, the second reason for the great tribulation, the purification of the nation of Israel and her preparation to accept her Messiah, Jesus Christ. (adv.) Pastor Barnett

"Suppose you were sued for $500,000—and lost! Could you stay out of bankruptcy and still meet the financial obligations to your business and family?"

"You could survive a financial crisis if you had an Auto-Owners Executive Liability Insurance policy. It provides up to $5,000,000 of protection. And costs a lot less than you think."

Prosecutor v.s. Ali

A Detroit sportswriter says Muhammad Ali may stage one of his $10 million prizefights in the Detroit area, perhaps in the new Pontiac Stadium. Go get him, Brooks Patterson!

Patterson is county prosecutor and candidate for field marshal in the Pontiac neighborhood. He first gained public notice several years ago by throwing his body in front of school buses. The voters applauded and Patterson has been performing encores ever since.

Patterson goes with the wind, using his tongue for a sail. I think he feels the public pulse by attending lynchings and book burnings. He is death on welfare cheats and marauding gypsies. He finds out what makes the average man mad and then appears on TV, shovel in hand, to say he's madder than anyone and something has got to be done, by God!

The shovel is because there's a rumor Jimmie Hoffa's body might be buried in Patterson's county. More than anything else, Patterson appreciates the value of publicity. When and if the Hoffa mystery is solved, it will be worldwide news. Walter Cronkite and everything. If the body is discovered at the bottom of the Atlantic, Patterson will trade his shovel for a net and lead an international crusade against forced fishing.

Patterson's current crusade is against dirty movies that don't star Marlon Brando. Brooks says that all bare flesh and overt sex is obscene and he doesn't want it in his county. The voters agree, applauding wildly. The average man never wants dirty movies in his neighborhood — but he doesn't mind driving across town to see one. Of course, the average man on the other side of town feels the same way. That's human nature, which may also be obscene. So midtown collisions are inevitable and smart lawyers such as Patterson know the value of being at the scene of an accident.

Patterson has milked tons of ink and TV time out of one lousy movie called "Naked Came the Stranger." He has closed the theatre so many times he should be awarded a flashlight and usher's epaulets. The courts keep reopening it. The problem is Patterson can't prove his definition of obscenity is constitutionally acceptable in every bedroom. I suspect the battle replays are not displeasing to Patterson. A man who makes a clown of himself 10 times gets more publicity than the man who does it only once. But there's a limit to public interest. Patterson could attain a saturation point where the public would decide he is really a clown, fulltime, and he would then cease to be news.

So it would probably be wise of Patterson to be on the alert for a new source of obscenity. That's why I am here, ever helpful, talking about Muhammad Ali.

The business of professional boxers is to pound on each other. Most ideally, the loser is the fighter who is first knocked unconscious. Or, barring such a clear-cut outcome the loser is the fighter who suffers the most, who bleeds the most or has the most bones broken. The winner is the boxer who is the best hurtler. If he is a really great hurtler, causing much unconsciousness and bloodshed, he may be paid millions of dollars for doing it on closed-circuit TV.

The dictionary says somethings is obscene if it is "offensive, indecent, repulsive to the senses; loathsome." I submit that prizefighting is more obscene than "Naked Came the Stranger" or any other movie ever made.

What could possibly be more obscene than hitting people and getting paid for it? Dropping bombs on them.

It's a natural. If he would close down the proposed Ali fight, Patterson would not only win God's love, he would get an hour alone with Walter Cronkite.

"Main Stream Musing"

IT'S A LIVING
(By Jaymee Seidel)

Advising people about their careers is big business today. It is all supposed to be so scientific, matching you to the perfect occupation. But don't most of us arrive at our niches in life in the same way that pip-squeak on television did whose job it is to talk to us about diarrhea? I mean, through a simple process of elimination?

Early in life I discovered one job I was unfit for. I was 12 years old and taking part in my Girl Scout troop's good deed for the year, namely, serving the annual Rotary Club Ladies' Night Dinner in our home-town. My first job was to pour coffee, and the first pour was a next-door neighbor. We exchanged a few words of greeting before I realized I was pouring his coffee down his sleeve instead of into the cup he was holding. I ran for the kitchen with his screams still in my ears. Hiding under the dishwashing machine, I managed to miss the salad, soup, and main courses before my fellow Scouts found me and dragged me back into action.

A plate of ice cream in each hand, I approached my neighbor. His suit jacket was hanging wotly over the back of his chair, and I noticed his arm was rather badly scalded. Bending over to say, "I am so sorry," I suddenly caught sight of a glob of ice cream as it went slipping off a plate and into his wife's lap. So much for waitressing.

That same grace followed me into adulthood. I remember being introduced to a semi-famous opera professor. In reaching to shake his hand, I dropped a piece of sheet music I had been holding in my right hand. I picked it up and put it in my left hand, which already held my purse and one glove. The music somehow stayed between my thumb and little finger, but the purse crashed to the floor and the glove fluttered after it. He looked at me in disbelief, then said, "Here, you missed this," and pulled the other glove out of my coat pocket, from which he'd seen it dangling, and neatly dropped it on the floor. O.K. Scratch opera singer; scratch model. I got no poise, no class.

Show biz appealed for awhile, though, so one summer I was part of a local amateur group. In the final scene of Noel Coward's "Bitter Sweet" my beloved Vincent and I were sitting on the floor. He got up, went over to the piano at stage left and with his back to me, began to play our song. The script called for me to then stand, stroll dreamily over to him, and slip my arms around his neck just as he ended his tune, at which point he would turn slowly and take me into his arms.

There was only one small problem, actually. When I stood up, alone in the spotlight on the darkened stage, the heel of one shoe caught in the hem of my 1920 Flapper dress. The hem was well sewn and very short. I found I couldn't shake loose without increasing my embarrassment, so I tried hopping (dreamily) across the stage. By this time the light was on Vincent, too, and he was starting to act funny, trying to look over his shoulder for whatever was making that odd thumping noise, and still not miss a note. Just then I lost my balance and fell on his back. Scared to death, he whirled around, throwing us both to the floor. As the lights dimmed according to plan, I hid my face in his lapels, choking not with the sadness of our bittersweet love, but with helpless laughter. Now I guess if you tried, you might convince me that I could have learned the same things about myself from answering a computer - graded 17 - page

Sixteen years in class unwise luxury?

The possibility that our society provides too much schooling for our young people was advanced recently and from a most unusual source—from the former United States Commissioner of Education.

Usually we hear the cry that we don't do enough for our young folks, so to hear the chant from the other side of the coin is somewhat unusual.

Harold Howe II, who held the country's top education post from 1965 to 1968, at a recent seminar suggested that high schools or colleges or both should be shortened by a year or more.

Howe is now a vice president of the Ford Foundation.

He said that 16 years of education in the United States—starting at age six in the first grade and running through three or four years of college, at age 21 or 22—"is a luxury no other country has."

Said Howe: "People get fed up with classrooms after being in them for 16 years."

Another of Howe's suggestions was that adults should be provided a year or more of education later in life, when they are more mature and in a better position to appreciate it.

Maybe the gentleman has a point. To hear our teen-aged citizens tell about it, not only is 16 years in a classroom too much, but so is five days a week, or nine months a year, or even the five hours or so they're away from home for school now.

Shorten secondary education by a year? There would be problems, of course.

For example, what then does society do with all the job fodder turned loose in the employment market—and with the employment market drying up more and more in recent years?

Even if society could find jobs for young citizens, we would then have to turn around the thrust of our child protection laws which have made it more and more difficult for young folks to get a job; they're "protected" right out of the job market, it seems.

If we shortened secondary education by a year, that would result in a 25 percent drop in the need for high school teachers—wouldn't it? What would we then do with an even greater glut of teachers without jobs?

Shorten college a year? Many college students would welcome the abbreviated calendar—and so would many parents who help their offspring with tuition and other expenses.

However, the trend is in the other direction entirely. More and more college graduates are going on to graduate schools, required to do so to become fully qualified in their fields of endeavor as the other end of our society demands more stringent entrance levels.

Then, too, recent years find college graduates facing a tough job market and four-year grads frequently find continued education in graduate schools much preferable to no job at all.

Looking more deeply into Mr. Howe's suggestions about shorter school experiences reveals a whole host of problems; the idea sounds interesting on the surface, but impractical in application.

The other idea Mr. Howe advanced—the idea that adults should go back to school for a year when they're older and more mature and better able to appreciate the merits of education—has considerable to recommend it.

This idea, of course, is the basis of the sabbatical leave theory, fostered in the field of education but spreading throughout more of society in labor contracts and other agreements.

It also is the basis for community adult education programs which seem to be growing in popular acceptance.

Grayling JV's Romp Past Boyer 34-0

Grayling High School's J.V. Football Team posted their third victory last Thursday, thoroughly trouncing Boyer City's Ramblers 34-0.

An early first quarter goal line stand by the Vikings set the stage for the contest. Grayling used some new defensive sets to match some of the personnel changes in the lineup. The Vikings' defensive efforts were led by Chris Ostrander, Brian Ruddy, Steve Byce and Dave Lepsy. Hard hitting by the young Vikings caused five Ramblers fumbles which were recovered by Sherm Holey (2), Curt Hanson, Steve Byce and Randy Erickson, who returned the ball 80 yards before being tackled deep in Boyer territory. Ostrander and Jamie Cox picked off Boyer pass attempts for interceptions.

Offensively, tailback Sherm Holey took advantage of good line blocking by Chris Ostrander, Steve Byce, Doug DeHart, Randy Erickson, Jeff Riker and John Herrick to score for four touchdowns. Holey's longest run was an exciting 95 yard T.D. which followed and 80 yard T.D. run by Chip Nicholas which was called by on a clip penalty. Grayling's other score was a 70 yard run by tailback Steve Harland.

For the night, Holey had 307 yards of Grayling's 567 total rushing yardage. Quarterback Scott Johnston completed 9 of 13 pass attempts for 207 yards. Doug DeHart kicked successful conversions after Grayling's first and third touchdowns. A pass from Scott Johnston to Chip Nicholas accounted for a two point conversion after the locals fourth touchdown.

This Thursday the J.V.'s travel to Cheboygan to close their season. Coach Chuck Mires stated he is looking for his improving team to close with a two game winning streak.

School Happenings

Superintendent's Corner

(By Fraser Dean)

Last Thursday the Crawford AuSable Schools hosted the Northern Michigan School Board Associations annual fall conference. This is the second year in a row for the conference here and both times nearly 200 Superintendents and school board members have been in attendance.

Those of us in attendance from the local school system have heard a great deal of praise for the excellent high school facilities we have from other school people in Northern Michigan and have come away from the conference feeling very proud of our high school and the local residents commitment to quality education.

Residents will again be asked to show that commitment in next weeks election for the proposed new addition to the Frederic Elementary School and, although it is a very difficult decision to make, I am very confident the results will be positive.

I'd like to take this opportunity to urge those residents who have not been in the Old Frederic School to visit it before next Tuesday's election. Many people have been up for a first hand look at the building in recent months and nearly every one of them has come away with the feeling that a new building is imperative for the safety and well being of the elementary children who live in the northern half of Crawford County.

Middle School News

One of the exciting events that took place which involved Middle School students was the choir's trip to Tawas City on Saturday, October 25th. All of the eighth grade choir members and a select few from the seventh grade were accompanied by Mrs. Jan Olson, the choir teacher, to the mass choir sing. Also in attendance were some 350 students from 10 choirs throughout Northern Michigan. Students from all the choirs get the opportunity to sing in a large mass choir with a new director, and learn several new songs. It was a fun trip for all.

The eighth grade class have been busy, working hard to organize and prepare for their school party which was held on Friday, October 24. It was a Halloween party which requested that all students come dressed up in a costume. A prize was given for the best costume. Refreshments of cider and donuts were served. Everyone who came enjoyed a really fun time.

Science is a very interesting class this week in Mrs. Cindy Wakeley's sixth grade classroom. Students are experimenting with the elemental stages of flies so they have put meat in jars, hanging it out of doors, hoping to catch flies to lay their eggs on the meat. Through this they want to be able to observe all the steps that really take place in a fly's development. Also in Mrs. Wakeley's class, the students are progressing at their own speed in reading projects, as they all have individual reading folders.

Many of our students have been out sick with colds or mumps. We will be happy to welcome everyone back healthily again this next week.

LEARN ABOUT EXPLOSIVES—The third and fourth graders went to a program about shells and hand-grenades. SP4 Frantz gave the show. He told us if we found one to report it to the sheriff. He also told us that they could go off by a change of temperature or if you cast your shadow over them. These shells come in all shapes and sizes. If you see the top of a shell there are a lot of other shells and tops. So if you find one don't play with it or you will go off in a boom. The men came from the 75th Ordnance Detachment, Explosive Ordnance Disposal, U.S. Army.
(by Monique Petrosky and Denise Patton)

SLIDES OF LOGGING DAYS—On October 10th, Mr. Hoover from Hartwick Pines came to Mrs. Yatch's Second Grade class to show a slide program on the logging and lumbering times in Grayling and Michigan.

"WRITE" TO READ—The children in Mrs. Knepp's reading room turned "author" this week. Each of us talked with our volunteer-teacher about our Halloween ideas and experiences. Then we made up stories about Halloween and dictated them to our teacher. After Mrs. Knepp typed up our stories, we made illustrations to go with them. Everything from fish gravel to cotton balls and ribbon was used to complete our pictures, and we came up with some really fantastic monsters, witches and goody globs. After we made a cover and title page, we learned to read the story we had written. Reading this way was easier than some of our other reading lessons because we were reading stories we had written ourselves. Lisa Solomonson, Jeff Welch and Paul Bourque are showing off "the finished product". We're very proud of our books.

BOOK FAIR

We have confirmed a Book Fair for the week of November 3rd. Children will be able to view the books on display and place an order. Dates were scheduled around parent-teacher meetings so parents may place orders. The books are all in the low price range. Orders will be filled in time for Christmas. Proceeds will be used to purchase library materials.

Billy Johnson brought a cricket to school. The children were interested in knowing more about crickets so we used the library for material. We learned how to identify male and female crickets, how crickets sing, and learned what to feed our cricket. Everyone in Mrs. Batway's class was saddened when, in spite of our efforts to provide a proper home, our cricket died.

Mrs. McEver's class is continuing the study of left and right. They are making hand prints and drawings of their feet. Their volunteer aide is assisting with this special project.

Mrs. Manutes is teaching us pumpkin carols to help us celebrate Halloween. They are songs with the same melody as Christmas carols but with lyrics relating to Halloween.

We had a visitor to all the classes. Her name is Mrs. Nichols but her Indian name is Princess Little Pigeon. She has 14 children. Her jewelry is very fascinating and pretty. She told us a lot of information and plenty of stories. (by Cheryl Campeau)

Authors in the resource program are busy writing books about Halloween. Some of the stories are so spooky, you get scared reading them. We are also doing skits on American History. Every week, actors do a bi-centennial minute, and that's the way it is....

Mrs. Hawkins' class has been working hard in their centers. They started a new way of traveling from center to center which they found exciting. "Pumpkin Patch" is their October theme. They are making it come true by bringing in pumpkins to carve. They will bake the seeds and make a pie from scratch.

If you come to Frederic Elementary School, you'd better bring a coat because it's really getting cold. We just got done making Halloween pictures to put up on the board. This year, the sixth graders are really doing different things. (by Chip Durga)

Mrs. Ingvarsson's group is getting ready for Halloween. We are putting up Halloween faces out of paper plates. We are looking forward to the Open House. Mrs. Caid will come in on Tuesday to work with all of us. Mrs. Henion helped in our room on Wednesday. We learned the old fashion name for bat-flittermouse. It's called flittermouse because the bat's body looks like a mouse and it flies all around.

Career Education

On Monday, October 20th, Mrs. Adams from Grayling came to Mrs. Bovee's class to show them what she does for a job. She decorates cakes for some restaurants. The restaurant she bakes cakes and decorates for are Arrowhead, Holiday Inn and Chief Shoppemag Hotel. She gave everyone a cupcake to decorate. The decorations were pretty. She has styrofoam cakes she decorates for people to see what kind of cakes they are.

Bits O' Talk

Recent visitors to Grayling were Clint and Kathy Brown (former Kathy White) of Denver, Col. While they were here they took a canoe trip down the AuSable and a trip to Hartwick Pines as this was Clint's first trip to Michigan. Arthur Thayer was a dinner guest of theirs one evening. The Browns were guests of honor one evening at the home of Duane Brooks. Co-hostesses were Donna Hubbard and Lynne Reeves. Several of Kathy's classmates and instructors from the Kirtland LPN school along with other Grayling friends enjoyed spending the evening with Kathy and her husband. After leaving here, the Browns traveled to New England. They are now in Florida and will continue on to Texas before returning to Denver at the end of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Post and son, Jason, of Mt. Pleasant spent the weekend with the Morden Posts. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lewis of Stockbridge spent from Sunday till Tuesday at the Post home. The Lewises will leave for Florida with the Posts in November and will be making their home in or near Frederic in the spring.

Editor's Mailbox

So your child is playing in the school band for the first time? Don't make the mistake we did. First off, too many wanted to play in the band; second too many wanted to play the "Flute", because it was cheaper. Most of them quit because they couldn't have their way. The first year my daughter played they only had two concerts. All the rest of the time was spent learning to play. A music director should suggest a used, borrowed but not an expensive instrument for a beginner. And after a period of 3 years and the child looks like he or she may have a future in it - I suggest buying an expensive piece of instrument. It would save you lots of money and one more thing...a headache.

Volunteer Aide Program

"You've come a long way Baby!" This phrase, which we hear over and over again, refers only to women! You will never hear it used in reference to men, children, teenagers or groups of the like. This catchy phrase tells the whole world that the role of women has changed and continues to change. In the past "women's work" was found only in the home. Today "women's work" is where ever she finds it... in the home, "wage working", and/or involved with some kind of volunteer effort, just to name a few.

Women are the backbone of volunteerism in this nation. The Volunteer Aide Program at the Frederic and Grayling Elementary Schools is an example of volunteerism in our community. Women comprise 86% of this program. Do not mistake this involvement for "busy work". The success or failure of a students' efforts depend upon the desire and dedication of each volunteer aide.

Presently the Volunteer Aide Program in the Grayling Elementary School is working "short handed". Nine morning (one morning a week) volunteer aides are needed. Twelve afternoon (12:15-1:15 and again one afternoon a week) volunteers are needed. Grayling also needs several volunteers who would be willing to serve as substitutes. In Frederic, volunteers with artistic abilities and also volunteers to make teaching games are needed.

If you have a little extra time one morning or afternoon a week and would like to experience new growth, please contact Irene Pettyjohn at 348-7641.

Scheer Elected To Chevy Post

William B. Scheer, Scheer Motors, Inc., Grayling, has been elected to a key office for his area in a nationwide organization of Chevrolet dealers.

Chosen as representative from his district to the Chevrolet Dealer Council, he will serve as spokesman for 12 Chevrolet dealers in the district at an October meeting of the organization to be held at the zone headquarters in Flint.

The Chevrolet Dealer Council program was pioneered by Chevrolet in 1937. Operating at local and national levels, the organization helps Chevrolet's 6,000 dealers plan toward mutual progress in discussions among themselves and with Chevrolet executives. Among matters discussed are market conditions, business concepts and customer services.

your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: November 2 to November 8

ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19
You'll miss out on something. Don't feel badly. They raised the gangplank on the Titanic—and left some behind, too!

TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20
This should put wind in your sails: An ungrateful member of the opposite sex wants to impose further. Just make it through the week without an emotional explosion.

GEMINI
May 21-June 20
It's mischief on the march, for many members of your sign. Take care, don't bargain off tomorrows for today. You have an important decision to make.

MOONCHILD
June 21-July 22
You won't be in one of your better moods—you might feel as though you're going from nowhere to nowhere. Simply, make it through the week.

LEO
July 23-Aug. 22
For those under your sign—so inclined, it's a day of reacting to a subtle overture. It's a day of romantic mischief. Stay in bounds!

VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22
Dreams must be planted into the grounds of reality. Try to stay with tasks at hand. Your job, task or project might slip—because of neglect.

LIDRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22
Unkept promises seem to be in the general scheme of things. Avoid a fast talker who'll promise the whole world.

SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21
You'll be in the mood to experiment, try new things. It's a week of being bizarre: being way out. You might meet someone whose thoughts are in the shade.

SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21
There's conflict among your associates. It isn't easy—but you must do a little fence straddling. Whatever you do, avoid any "unholy" alliances.

CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19
Affairs of the heart might not go too well, for many members under your sign—take no one for granted. Avoid being inconsiderate of your mate or similar alliance.

AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18
Someone's advice could make you less sure of yourself. From time to time, we all get that feeling. An associate might knock you off stride.

PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20
You might realize, to your surprise, that you'll like to do something that has never appealed to you. It's a week of new ventures.

Mike Wieland remarked, "The kids were flat on Monday and just didn't believe they were going to have a ball game, we beat them last year, 51-0, and the JV's won 44-0, and it seemed the majority of the players felt the game was won before they walked on the field", Wieland added.

Will Roach continued to lead the Vikings offense with 70 yards in 12 carries to bring his season's total to 1093 yards.

The Vikings had 78 yards rushing and 73 yards passing in the abbreviated contest. It looked like the Vikings were going to swap point for point with the Ramblers, but 2 fumbles and a pass interception stopped 3 of the local gridder drives.

In other league games, Petoskey clinched the title and remained undefeated with 35-13 win over Charlevoix, Rogers City nipped Cheboygan 6-0, and St. Ignace kept Gaylord winless, 19-6.
